- Children ages 3 and up are eligible to get a library card. However, we recommend that parents wait to let their children have a library card until the child is old enough to understand the responsibility and significance of getting a library card.
- If a child is under age 14 they must have a parent or guardian sign below.
- The parent's signature below indicates that they understand and accept responsibility for all materials checked out to their child, including any fees or replacement costs that are accrued.
- In addition, parents are accepting that by Massachusetts law (see below) the library cannot release library card records, including the titles of items checked out, to parents and caregivers without permission from the card holder.

Massachusetts State Law 78.7
Public Libraries; establishment by cities and towns; records:
"...That part of the records of a public library which reveals the identity and intellectual pursuits of a person using such library shall not be a public record as defined by clause Twenty-sixth of section seven of chapter four."
