

Salisbury Cemeteries

Old Burying Ground (Also known as Colonial Burying Ground and Town Cemetery)

1662-1908

Corner of Beach Road and Ferry Street

Contact: TBD

Long Hill Cemetery

1856-present

Beach Road

Contact: TBD

True Cemetery

?-present

Lafayette Rd.

Contact: TBD

Jewish Cemetery (Also known as the Hebrew Cemetery)

?-present

Lafayette Rd. Rte. 1

Contact: TBD

Firemen's Cemetery/Soldiers Cemetery

Part of the True Cemetery

Lafayette Rd.

Contact: TBD

Maplewood Cemetery

1639-?

Ferry Road

Contact: TBD

Private Burying Ground

Ferry Rd.

Private Burying Ground

On the P.A. True Farm

Many of the early settlers of Salisbury were buried in Amesbury, as that was once part of Salisbury. The very earliest Salisbury Cemetery is now in Seabrook, NH right on rte. 1.