Borrowing Details:

- This device must be returned to library staff at the circulation desk. Book drop returns are not allowed.
- The loan period for this device is three weeks. This loan period may not be extended or renewed.
- If the device or any accompanying items are lost, stolen, or damaged, the borrower will be responsible for replacement costs.
- Borrowers must comply with all federal copyright laws.
- Borrowers must comply with Amazon terms of use.
- Borrowers must have an Amazon account or create one to use Library Kindle Fires.
- Do not expose Kindle Tablet to extreme temperatures.
- You are responsible for de-registering and resetting the Kindle before returning it. The library cannot be held responsible for another patron using your Amazon.com account on the Kindle Fire Device once the device is checked in. We provide instructions in the kit on how to successfully do so.
- Please remember to save to your Amazon account and not to the "device." Once you've "De-registered" your Amazon account from the Kindle Fire Device, all data saved on the physical device, will be erased.
- The Library will not be responsible for any charges you incur while using Library Kindle Fire Devices. We provide the equipment, but your account is your personal account and you, the patron, are responsible for charges you incur.

By checking out the kindle the borrower acknowledges that he/she has read and agreed to the terms and conditions associated with lending this device. The borrower also acknowledges that he/she is familiar with the device and all accompanying items and will be held responsible for any components that are lost or damaged while the device is checked out to him/her.
